PRESS RELEASE

Date: November 5, 2018
Case Number: 18ES06816

Narrative: On Monday, November 5, 2018 at 1:44 pm the Essex Police Department was dispatched along with Essex Junction Fire, Essex Rescue and Saint Michael's College Fire and Rescue to a Men's Hair Salon located at 137 Pearl Street, Essex Junction for a vehicle that drove through the front of the building.

33 year old female Jashu Adhikari of Essex Junction was operating a tan 2014 Subaru XV when she drove through the front entrance to the Hair Salon causing substantial damage to the front entrance along with property damage to the interior of the salon. No customers were inside at the time. The one stylist on duty was not injured as a result of the collision. The operator of the vehicle was evaluated by Essex Rescue and refused transport.

The vehicle was removed from the building by Anytime Towing.

The collision is still under investigation by the Essex Police Department. Alcohol/ Drugs were not a factor. No criminal charges are expected.

Issued by: Sgt. John Dunn
